

Staying Connected -
Where to from here?

We can be crushed/
dried out
Yet have value/worth

We can access our true path making a new path

It is Time to find our truth/our gifts
And to share

Let's surround ourselves with those who understand and can help clear the way Let's find and give comfort knowing there is another way
